

Fundus

Fundoscopy in GA typically shows a well-circumscribed oval or round area of pigment epithelium atrophy, usually sparing the fovea until late stages (Fig. 2).

All precursor lesions of this final appearance can also be present: large drusen (>125 microns), focal pigmentation changes and refractile deposits(3,23).

View PDF